Hood & Templeton, "State of the Schools" Address

The C-W Chamber welcomes both the Camas Interim Superintendent, Doug Hood and the Washougal Superintendent, Mary Templeton. They will be presenting the "State of the Schools" Address

As Camas and Washougal are seeing record economic growth so are our schools. Mr. Hood and Dr. Templeton will address how they are responding to the growth and how they are planning for the needs by the districts to continue to provide quality education in our growing communities.

Salud Wine Bar and Event Center

Chamber Board Member
Raechill Dotson

A Speakeasy is an illicit establishment that sells alcoholic beverages, or a retro style bar that replicates aspects of historical speakeasies. Speakeasy bars came into prominence in the United States during the Prohibition era.

Salud! is excited to be opening a speakeasy at our establishment in May! While this is a wonderful addition and will include a full bar, I encourage you to enjoy what Salud! already offers:

Great homemade Italian food prepared by my wonderful husband aka Chef Tony!

- Great wine and wine storage!
- Great atmosphere with indoor and outdoor dining
- Great service!
- Great entertainment: Music and Movie Trivia, Karaoke, Bunco, Bingo and live music to name a few!
- Great event space available any day or night of the week!

My name is Raechill Dotson and I am one of the owners of Salud! I am currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Camas-Washougal Chamber of Commerce. I have a passion for this community and enjoy being involved on all levels.

While Tony has another full-time job, having an Italian restaurant was his dream. He wants to share great food from family recipes with others. My dream was to open a wine bar. It was a perfect match. The speakeasy was an afterthought but after a lot of hard work, blood sweat and tears it is almost ready to unveil.

Please come join us where you enter as guests and leave as family! Please visit our website to check out all we have to offer! Also, please visit our Facebook page to learn about upcoming events.

Stay tuned! We are planning a ribbon cutting / grand opening on the first Friday of May (May 6, 2022) for our Speakeasy! Mark your calendars and come join us!

Many of us participate in spring-cleaning activities at home but when it comes to our offices/workstations, it often gets overlooked.

Taking the time to organize your space every few months increases productivity, focus, and overall enthusiasm for work. Here are some tips:

1. Individualize Your Workspace. One of the best strategies to increase your focus and productivity is to individualize your workspace. Decorating our workspaces/desks with items that motivate us can support us in our overall productivity. It is important to note that the items we bring into our workspace have a purpose and are not just there to clutter our offices.
2. Recycle & Renew! Grab your shredder, it is time to get rid of some of your paper waste! Go through your files/papers and determine what can be recycled and what needs to be kept. One great way to create more space is to copy all of your documents and save as them in an electric format (even those notes from your idea note pad).
3. Limit Distractions at all Costs. Distractions are everywhere in the workplace and sometimes it can be difficult to avoid all of them! Find ways to get rid of distractions on your desk especially when you have a project or task you need to focus on.
4. Give technology A Much Needed Reboot. Give all of your technology resources a much needed reboot! When is the last time you turned off your computer or phone? This can help your programs to reset, delete cookies that have built up, and for updates to occur. Also delete any files on your desktop that may be slowing down your software on your computer from running and organize your filing system on your computer.

Roll up your sleeves and get started on spring-cleaning your workspace. Applying at least one of the tips above will instantly help you refocus and increase the effectiveness of completing tasks and projects at work! Happy Spring everyone!
